RE: Changing Reading Books

Dear Parents,

We hope you are keeping well. We would like to ensure that alongside their videoed home learning lessons, the children are able to access reading books on a regular, if not daily basis.

Following on from yesterday's letter we have managed to come up with a safe way for Reception children to change their books on a weekly basis.

- If your child attends school, even if it is just for one day, they will have their books changed in school so you do not need worry.

If your child is learning from home EVERY day of the week, we would ask you to do the following:

- 1. How do I drop off my child's books safely?
  - a. Between 10am and 2pm on Thursdays (starting tomorrow) please drop all of your child's reading books and yellow reading record into school.
  - b. Access school via the main entrance.
  - c. Outside of the main office there will be a box for each class. We will also leave a named folder there for you to place all of your books and yellow reading record inside before placing the folder in the box.
- 2. When and how are the books changed?
  - a. All books will be quarantined 24 hours.
  - b. They will be changed on Fridays.
  - c. All books will be ready to collect every Monday (10am and 2pm). Your child's named folder will be in the box for their class and will be outside of the main office for you to pick up.
- 3. What does my child read on the weekends?
  - a. Each week there are three Guided Reading sessions with Miss Cleary and the PDF of these books are included on the daily schedule.
  - b. e-books are also available on the Reading Egg free subscription. Click here

Please do not hesitate to contact us via email or Tapestry with any queries related to this.

Thank you for your continued support
