Remembrance

If your child is in Brownies, Rainbows, Guides, Beavers, Cubs or Scouts, they are welcome to wear their uniform to school on Wednesday for Remembrance Day.

With the colder weather here and an increase in illnesses, we wanted to remind everyone when children need to be kept off school:

On Thursday 22nd October, we took two teams to a Girl's Football Tournament at The Burrows in Leckhampton. It was a great afternoon of football with the sun shining down on us all. Both teams played with determination, passion and great teamwork. There was only 2 points separating the top 4 placings – that's how close it was. Thank you to the parents for giving lifts and helping to organise one of the teams. Well down to: Lyra, Bea, Annabelle, Charlotte, Heidi, Nicola, Tillee, Clara, Damilola, Effy. Poppy, Seren, Sienna, Eleanor, and Evie.

Mrs Brown and Mrs Isherwood 😊

On Thursday 5th November some of our boys played in the Albert Dix Football Tournament. Even though they played with passion, determination and great team spirit it wasn't quite enough to get them over the goal line. It was a great afternoon of football and they all enjoyed it, with a super attitude. Thank you to the parents for giving lifts and staying to support. Well done to: George, Jack, Matthew, Anthony, Tommy, Charlie, Josh, Harley, Isaac, Harrison, Theo, Rex, Reggie, Zach, Oscar and Zion.

Mrs Brown and Miss Bass 😊
