Football News

Girls' Football

On Friday 15th November our Girls' Football Team played a match away against St Gregory's. In the first half we took a while to get going, but all played very well with a number of goal line scrambles we were unable to get across the line.

The second half was much stronger and good attacking play from both sides. Thankfully we won 4-3, with plenty of attempts on goal by SVPS.

Well done to Harriet, Rosie, Arabella, Evie, Aaliyah, Laura, Mia, Zofia and Niamh. Thank you to all the parents for giving lifts and staying to support.

Mrs Brown 😊

Boys' Football

On Wednesday 20th November our Boys' Football Teams played away at Naunton Park Primary School. Both teams played extremely well. Great teamwork and support on both pitches.

The A Team played well together. Defence worked hard to keep it to 2-2 at half time. Ryan (GK) made some great saves and reduced the goal difference to a minimum. The attacking end put more pressure on in the second half but unfortunately were unable to score anymore. They lost 5-2.

The B Team also played very well in all areas of the pitch and were able to win their match 4-1, with a hat trick by Archie. Well done to: Ollie, Robert, Adem, Rafa, Chen, Alfie, Nathan, Ryan, Archie, Cruz, Kaelym, Ethan, Max, Isaac, Brooklyn and Freddie.

Great afternoon of football. Thank you to Mr Bailey for helping with the B team during their match and to all the parents for giving lifts and staying to support.
