Final Headlines for 2023/24

This is the final Headlines for this year. I would like to take this opportunity to thank all the parents for their continued support, our wonderful staff who go above and beyond each and every day, and of course the children for being... 'just lovely' 😊.

Staffing News

As we welcome back Mrs Pointon from maternity leave, it is also time to say a fond farewell to a few staff. Miss Howells (Y1 Teacher), Mr. Shepherd (Y4 Teacher), Miss Owen (TA), Mrs Modi (MDS) and Mrs Watling (MDS) and are all leaving us today. I would like to take this opportunity to say a huge thank you to them all and wish them all the very best for their new adventures.

Y6 Children

We are also saying a fond farewell to our brilliant Y6 children. They have relished everything that comes with being in Y6 and I'm sure they will all excel in their own way as they move onto secondary school.

Football News

On Tuesday 16th July, our Girls' A team were invited to play a friendly at Dunalley Primary School. With a mixture of showers and sunshine this did not affect the result.

We won 8 -1 which was a wonderful way for the girls to end their SVPS journey as a football team together.

Goal scorers were Harriet 4, Bella, 2, Sophia 2 and some super saving by Aimee our goalkeeper. Mia and Zofia created some lovely attacking moves, from the wings, into the box and strong defending by Rosie.

We would like to wish Bella, Sophia, Aimee and Alisha all the best in their next phase to secondary school and hope they will continue to shine in all they do.

Thank you to parents for supporting them and me. Mrs Brown 😊
